THE INFLATION PARTY.

We of the far west have felt the influence of the greenback craze so little that we underestimate its danger to the country. It is by no means extinct, but is organized and powerful and as mischievous as ever, as will be seen by the following remarks of General Sam Cary, made in an interview with a Cincinnati Commercial reporter: Mr. Cary—The resumption as obtained is a sham, a miserable pretense. The secretary of the treasury has been compelled to violate plain statutes to accomplish his act of folly. The provision of the law creating greenbacks, which is upon the back of every one of them, provides that they shall not be received for custom duties. We greenbackers have insisted that a law making them receivable for custom duties would have brought them up to par with coin ten years ago, and saved the country from the bitter experience of all these years. Now, in defiance of law, Sherman finds it necessary to carry out his scheme to receive these notes for custom duties. Again, the coin obtained from customs is appropriated by law to pay the coin interest of the public debt, yet the coupons on the bonds are paid now only in greenbacks, unless sent to New York for coin.

The maintaining of resumption depends upon several contingencies. If the balance of trade continues in our favor, bringing coin from foreign countries, and the secretary of the treasury can sell bonds fast enough to keep up his supply for resumption purposes, he will maintain it for some time. But whenever coin is in demand (and all history shows that a paper money redeemable in coin will sooner or later be presented for redemption), then will come the great crash ever witnessed in this country. It is confidence and not coin that floats premises to pay.

As to the revival of business, I cannot see how this is to be brought about by resumption. I see it stated that there are already indications of a general revival of trade. This I believe to be a falsehood uttered on purpose to deceive the people and give them false hopes. With some slight exceptions business was never as dead as at this hour. A large majority of business men are drawing upon their capital to live and meet expenses. Bankruptcy is still staring thousands in the face. Persons who have a little surplus money are withdrawing it from the banks, not to invest it in productive business enterprises, but to buy government bonds. If business was promising, forty millions would not be invested in one week in four per cent bonds. I want no better evidence than this, that labor must continue unemployed, and trade and business languish.

Reporter—Then you do not believe that your greenback party's mission is ended, and that resumption kills it? Mr. Cary—By no means. Every thing at present conspires to make our party stronger than ever. Even now the greenback is preferred to gold, and it always will be if it has a fair chance. This rag money, based upon the resources and credit of this great nation, will always be the equivalent of coin, and be preferred by the people. Let the metals be relegated to their legitimate functions—be used only as commodities in settling balances of foreign trade; give us an ample supply (not an inflation) of greenbacks; commence paying off instead of increasing the interest-bearing debt; wipe out all bank issues of currency, and business prosperity will come to stay. I tell you the Greenback party will not accomplish its mission until these results are obtained.

Reporter—How about an affiliation of your party with the Democratic party in the coming election? Mr. Cary—That will depend upon the Democrats and not upon the Greenbackers. If we capitulate, the National party will dictate the terms. So far as I am concerned—and I cannot vouch for others—I do not care a fig about any mere political organization. If the Democratic party will fairly and boldly adopt our platform of principles, and commit their organization to secure their enforcement, we can unite; otherwise we will remain as we are until we disintegrate both the old political organizations.

THE OREGON RAILROAD.

The GAZETTE to-day has a little item of news which may be very important to this state. It is that a company has incorporated for the purpose of building a railroad from Winnemucca to Oregon. If this means business, Reno should at once take steps to show this new organization that a road would do a better business if it came here than it would to strike the overland further east. It would get a great deal of California business this way, both in freight, passengers and mails. The route would be far better than either the water or stage routes. From Surprise valley to Astoria the same line would be used in either case, and from there to Reno would be as near and as easily built as the other, with a far better chance for local business. If some enterprising citizen, who has plenty of leisure, were to take the matter in hand, he might get a monument, and a two stick notice in the GAZETTE when he dies.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It is likely that southern building by either party has seen its best days. A new, industrious population is gradually suppressing the Bourbons and carpet-baggers. A Mr. Atkinson says that he saw plainly, while in the south, that the recent show in congress was "the last gasp of a dead past. The 'solid South,' so called, is honeycombed by forces that are disintegrating and reconstructing it. The pendulum swung too far one way and put dishonest men in power in many states by means of ignorant ballots; now it has swung too far the other, and has sent to Washington men who think they are representative men, but they are only the galvanized corpses of a dead past, and they are hanging themselves with their own ropes and digging their own graves."

The Pennsylvania legislature has just passed a bill by which a man over sixteen, not a cripple or deaf and dumb, who asks for alms is classed a tramp, and is made liable to arrest for misdemeanor, and on conviction may be sent to prison for a year. If he enters a house without permission of the owner he may be convicted of a felony, and be sent to the state penitentiary for three years. With tramps on one side, corporations on the other, which do as the Eureka road did with Fisk, and such laws between, we will soon have the commune.

"Authentic information is to the effect that General Grant will reach the United States about the latter part of October, or probably later if he can arrange to make a short stay here. He will make a tour of the south and visit the scenes of his military achievements in the late rebellion. Then he will return to Philadelphia, where he will make his residence."—Philadelphia Record.

That is a nice little programme and will manufacture seventy-five dollars worth of Grant sentiment.

The Nevada Herald has entered upon its second year. It is a first rate paper to have no opinions, and gives a good resume of the local news of its section. The GAZETTE wishes it well.

California will either have the cattle plague, or small pox, the walking fever, or Sergeant Bates for the immense amount of lies told in the late canvass.

Eureka feels very big since it got to be a town. The Leader thinks the tar bucket ought to answer for Reno with any laws.

Fred Hart, late of the Reese River Reville, has bought an interest in the San Francisco Stock Report.

The races at Roma were very fine last month. Not between the athletes but between the horses.

Grass Valley Notes.

[From the Union.] Truckee precinct, which was going overwhelmingly for the new constitution, according to the Republican, gave it 26 majority. If the Republican had had a chance to talk to its readers in a few more issues we might have looked for a decided majority for retaining the old.

Grass Valley is to feel the effect of the adoption of the new constitution, in a way that people will readily comprehend, by the stopping, or rather preventing the starting up of work on the Gold Hill mine.

There was really no happy faces in Grass Valley yesterday over the result of the election. Even those who had voted on the winning side seemed to be affected by the gloom which settled down upon the community.

Indian Scare.

The Idaho Democrat has the following about the Indians up north: "There is some uneasiness felt in the southern portion of Owyhee county at the disposition manifested by the Indians on Duck valley reservation. This reservation seems to be the home of some of the Nevada Piutes, small bands of Idaho Piutes, and a remnant of the Nevada Shoshones, some of the Bruneau Indians and other renegades. It is said that the whole number of Indians congregated at the place amounts to nearly 3000. They are represented to be of the lowest type of cricket-eaters. One white man is reported to have been killed recently by them, and other acts of violence and insolence are reported."

Important if True.

May 8th is the anniversary of the "invention of the cross." This is a festival instituted in honor of the finding of the cross A.D. 323 by the Empress Helena, mother of Constantine. The story is related by Socrates and other philosophers of his time. When Helena visited the scenes about Jerusalem, it is said that every trace of the great events which hallowed the environs had been obliterated by the heathen, and a temple of Venus stood upon Mount Calvary; but a Jew who had treasured up what traditions he could gather pointed out the probable place of Christ's sepulchre. The spot being excavated, three crosses were discovered and the title which that of Jesus bore was found lying by itself. A church was built over the spot.

Will Open.

I will open in a few days with a full stock of fine Watches, Clocks and Jewelry. Parties desirous of purchasing will find it to their interest to wait for me, for my prices will be cheaper than ever.

TRUCKEE ITEMS.

[From the Republican of To-day.]

The freight travel to Jamison and the Plumas Eureka mine this year will exceed six hundred tons. Mr. Wm. Ford of Jamison City has obtained the contract for forwarding this freight, and is expected to begin in a few days. Much of this trade formerly went around by Marysville. This is the first season that it has come to Truckee.

A. J. Bayley, proprietor of the Grand Central hotel, at Lake Tahoe, will be up about the last of the month to arrange for the accommodation of Tahoe tourists.

Col. Clarke Crocker, the leading business manager of the firm of Sisson, Wallace & Co., is in town.

Prof. Maynard, the boxing master and pugilist, has returned from the Plumas Eureka mine, and proposes organizing a boxing class.

G. W. Merason has removed his business to Reno, as will be seen by his advertisement in this issue. Mr. Merason has formed a partnership with D. B. Farver, and they will keep beer, cigars, liquors, etc., at lowest prices. Both gentlemen are very popular, and we commend them to the Reno boys as worthy of liberal patronage. When Truckeeites visit Reno they must not forget the Boca Beer saloon.

To the Good People of Reno.

Having entered the field with the balance to contend for a share of the public patronage, it would perhaps be well at the start to state our claims to the above. I am not a sufferer by the fire, so claim no sympathy on that score. I believe it's the duty of the good people to give preference to aid residents, provided all things are equal, but I Brown asks fifty cents for what Smith is willing to sell for twenty-five, on the grounds that he is loser by this and wants to get even. Hence I say we have no claim on the people except on those who may wish to economize. If you wish to buy your wife a fine silk dress by all means go to Enrich. If you want a suit of fine clothes go to friend Nathan's or Abrams, but if you want a "goose yoke," rat trap or jack knife go to Yankee Dodge's, where a dollar will buy a basketful. Recollected goods, as square as though sold over a marble counter. A child that can lip out the names of the articles wanted, can buy just as cheap as an expert.

P. S.—Money will be refunded on all goods that do not prove as represented.

GREY & ISAACS' GRAND OPENING.

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, do hereby require you to appear in said court at the office of the clerk of said court, on the 15th day of May, A. D. 1879, at 10 o'clock A. M., to answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons, (exclusive of the day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said district, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to obtain a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant. Plaintiff alleges: That plaintiff and defendant were lawfully married at Mono county, California, on or about July 25th, A. D. 1873, and ever since have been cohabiting and living as man and wife; that on or about September 25th, A. D. 1878, you, the defendant, willfully deserted and abandoned plaintiff, and ever since have so continued and do now so continue to desert, abandon and live apart from the plaintiff against her will, with or consent; that for more than a year next preceding the commencement of this action you, the defendant, have failed and neglected to provide for the maintenance and support of the plaintiff and the necessities of life, which neglect is and was the result of poverty on your part, which poverty could not have been avoided by industry; that there are no children living of the issue of said marriage and no common property. Plaintiff prays to be restored to her maiden name and for costs, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the clerk of said court at Reno, in said county. And you are further notified, that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof I, P. B. COMSTOCK, Clerk of the District Court of the Second Judicial District, Nevada, in and for Washoe county, do hereunto set my hand and the seal of said Court this 15th day of December, A. D. 1878.

P. B. COMSTOCK, Clerk of the District Court of the Second Judicial District, Nevada, in and for Washoe county. By S. A. MANN, Deputy. apr15-304

PERSONAL.

H. W. Roberts, of Truckee and Verdi, is in Reno.

Charles E. Loughton, auditor of the Virginia & Truckee railroad company, is domiciled at the Lake house.

R. H. Lindsey, one of the shining lights of the Comstock bar, is in town to-day attending to some probate matters in the district court.

J. C. Corey and C. C. Stevenson are in town to-day, attending the meeting of the trustees of the Agricultural society.

Charley Queen returned from Bodie last night. He says everything appears to be lively and flourishing in that altitudinous and auriferous burg, but everybody was frightened because of the adoption of the new constitution, fearing that it would cause the mines to shut down.

M. E. Church.

There will be divine service at the M. E. church to-morrow at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Rev. C. McKelvey officiating. Subject of the evening sermon, "The Death of Bishop Ames." Seats free; all are invited. Sabbath School at 1:30 P. M.

Professor Scott's Solace.

Professor Scott gives his regular Saturday evening solace to-night at Kimball hall. It will be a very enjoyable affair and doubtless many will attend.

LOOK OUT FOR YOUR EYE.

A Prophet and the Son of a Prophet.

The novelists have gotten the political fever, and one has written a novel. This startling story opens April 16, 1880. There are then only two parties left—Republicans and Labor-Greenback. The former seize the country and make Grant dictator. Chapter 6 describes a secret society, "The Circle," headed by a "Great Unknown," which is to save the country. Ch. 8, Grant enters New York guarded by 5000 soldiers, and attacked by an army of citizens. He escapes to his palace. Ch. 19 and 20, (1880) rockets and bonfires at midnight summon the patriots to arms all over the land. Railroad trains, forts, arsenals, armories and war vessels are captured. Ch. 21, there is a real death grapple in New York. The armories of all but four regiments captured by 30,000 patriots. Grant seizes himself. Ch. 22, burning of Brooklyn navy yard. Beecher's march. Ch. 23, New York city and two-thirds of the United States restored to freedom: 47,000 killed and wounded. Ch. 24, Grant goes to Philadelphia to be crowned Emperor Ulysses I. After various extraordinary and curious incidents he is crowned in Independence Hall. Ch. 25, Fort Hamilton surrenders to Fort Wadsworth after a short bombardment. Ch. 26, the Imperialists form great armies at West Philadelphia and Louisville, Ky.; the patriots at South Amboy, N. J., and Cincinnati, O. There are many small battles. The stock market wilts. The patriots seize the sub-treasury.

Undoubtedly Crazy.

News being a little scarce this morning, a GAZETTE reporter was struck with the happy idea of interviewing the milk men as to what effect the new constitution would have on their business. Just as the reportorial mind had reached the conclusion to do it, a milk wagon came dashing by at full speed. To hail it was the work of a moment. When the driver had pulled up, the reporter drew his note book and inquisitorially inquired "how he thought the new constitution would affect the milk business in Reno." The man seemed to take a sudden fit. He grew red in the face, gesticulated wildly, and finally ejaculated, "Well, I'll be ———!" The reporter saw that the man was in a terribly perturbed state, and concluded that he was light in the upper story, so he kindly asked what was the matter, doing so very mildly, as the unfortunate milk merchant appeared to be in a frenzy. The question seemed to still further madden the dealer in lactical nourishment, for he shouted out, "Go to h—ll! You and the new constitution, too, you infernal onion-headed son of a saw buck!" He didn't exactly say that, but something very like it, and he drove off at a furious rate, leaving the reporter so lost in astonishment that he forgot to interview any more milk men on the subject.

Another Touch of Winter.

A snow storm raged fiercely all night in the Sierras. It snowed quite heavily at Truckee. A part of the storm reached Reno, and some snow fell here, but melted almost immediately. It was intensely cold here for this season of the year, and it is feared that the fruit crop is seriously injured. Indeed the cherries have gone by the board almost entirely, and the strawberries are pretty badly used up. The wind blew at a terrible rate, and overcoats and comforters were in demand. It is quite pleasant to-day, however.

The meeting for the purpose of instituting a new lodge of I. C. of R. C. was held last night at the Odd Fellows' hall over the Congregational church. There were fifty-two names on the roll for membership. Permanent organization was not effected, as it was decided to have the charter open for several days yet in order to give all who wish to join a chance to become charter members. Another meeting will be held at the same place this evening.

Another Reno Industry.

Abrahams brothers have decided to start an extensive merchant tailoring establishment in Reno. They intend to manufacture clothing so cheap that they can successfully compete with eastern manufacturers. They will have one man between here and Ogden to measure and take orders, and another for the same purpose, between here and Sacramento. Their goods will be bought at wholesale prices in New York, and specially selected for this climate.

Fair and Festival.

The ladies of the M. E. church are preparing to hold a grand fair and festival, musical and literary entertainment at the pavilion, on the 21st, 22d and 23d inst. Proceeds to apply on payment of church indebtedness. Look out for a good time. The ladies of the Methodist church knew how to conduct a fair and festival.

New Music.

An excellent song and chorus, "Gentle Daisy Bell," has just been issued with a beautiful photograph of Marie Reza as "Carmen," adorning the title. Either song or photograph is worth more than the marked price of both—40 cents. The publishers, Sherman, Hyde & Co., have found it almost impossible to supply the demand.

Taken to Carson.

Deputy Sheriff Chamberlain took Ah Chouey to his future home in the Carson state prison this afternoon. Ah Chouey went to his new home happy and contented at escaping the hangman's noose.

MADDEN AND GARDNER.

Given Five Years—Gardner Declares Madden Innocent.

William Madden and George F. Gardner, convicted of the robbery of William Luke, were called up to-day for sentence. When Judge King reached the point where he asked the prisoners if they had anything to say why sentences should not be pronounced upon them, Judge Haydon, their counsel, arose and moved the court in a long and exhaustive argument to grant a new trial. The motion for new trial was overruled, and the judge again proceeded to deliver sentence, but was interrupted by Gardner, who intimated that he wished to say something. He was told to proceed, and then went on to inform the court that he was guilty, but Madden was not, and that he would rather suffer a double sentence than see Madden punished for his crime. Himself and another party, he said, did the robbery while Madden was in a saloon. He did not give the name of the party who assisted in the robbery, and said he had never seen him since that night. Madden was both ignorant and innocent of the crime. Of course this confession came too late to do any good, and the sentence was duly pronounced. Madden and Gardner were alike sentenced to five years in the state prison, the lowest penalty under the law that could be inflicted. They were taken up to Carson this afternoon in company with Ah Chouey.

A Good Suggestion.

Ed. GAZETTE.—Having noticed in the Reno papers that a move was on foot to organize a military company, and learning from one of the items that Mr. Laycock has procured some forty names as a starter, but will not organize before some twenty-five or thirty more men are enrolled, I beg leave to make the following suggestions. First, I would suggest that the proper way to organize would be to let ten men who have sufficient interest in having a military company here that Reno and Washoe county would encourage and be proud of organize as a rifle club, and admit new members through the usual form of investigating committee and ballot box. By that means it would debar all objectionable persons from disgracing the organization. By adopting the above suggestion, when sufficient members were balloted for and elected, they could with pride apply to the proper state officers for admission to the National Guards, whereas, if organized by the present plan, I believe it would be confusion worse confounded, as it would be a difficult task to get rid of the drone and good-for-nothing members, (when once sworn into the state service) who join expressly to procure certain exemptions.

EXPERIENCE.

Reno, May 10th, 1879.

N. S. A. M. & M. S.

The trustees of the Nevada State Agricultural Mining and Mechanical Society held an adjourned meeting at the Pavilion this afternoon. The business of arranging a speed programme occupied their attention. The indications are that the speed programme will be one of the best ever offered since the organization of the society. The premiums in some cases will be increased while those of other and less important races will be cut down. A great many other defects will be weeded out. Nothing will be decided on till their next meeting, which will be held in a week, at which time the full programme for the coming state fair will be published.

Bound to go Alone.

William Gilleran, the individual who arrived here the other day with his mental equilibrium in a topsy-turvy condition from abutting his stomach too frequently with Sacramento whiskey, picked up his grip sack, slipped out of the Lake house about 12 o'clock to-day, and started on his way to California across-jots. Lew Walker saw him making his way toward the mountains, and informed his brother who went out and brought him back.

Caution!

Those ladies to whom samples of the celebrated German compressed yeast were distributed this morning, are cautioned to use it immediately, as it does not retain its good qualities over three or four days. Those who wish to try this excellent article can do so by applying to Harry L. Bowmer at the GAZETTE office. The price delivered twice a week, on "baking day," is only 15 cents per week.

Changed His Mind.

An individual rushed out of an unfinished house this morning in a highly expletive state of excitement, and made for another man with the ejaculatory intention of whipping him. As the other fellow showed a disposition to stay and take his medicine like a man, his heart was toned with pity, and he concluded to let him off this time.

Going Below.

William Gilleran, the Sacramento who arrived here on the train night before last, suffering from the jim-jams, will go below to-night. His wife and brother came up from Sacramento this morning to see after him.

A Live Village.

Carson City had not snap enough to pay the Western Union company fifteen dollars to get election news from California. Before they got the GAZETTE prominent citizens were willing to bet a dollar the new constitution was beaten.
